

1 men who have decades of honorable public service behind
2 them. There are also private citizens here who have come 3 down off their private perches because they felt this was 4 an opportunity to render a service.

5 And it seems to me that for anyone speaking from 6 the eminence of the Governorship, it is most unfortunate, 7 most unfair and not helpful toward the acceptance of the 8 final document to have him say this.

9 To specifically, sir, belittle the efforts of 10 such a gathering, reminds me that he who steals my purse
11 gets but trash; but he who pilfers my good name, and that 12 of the delegates here, robs us of that which enriches
13 him not but impoverishes us.

14 Thank you, sir. (Applause.)

15 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sosnowski.

16 DELEGATE SOSNOWSKI: Mr. President, a point of 17 personal privilege.

18 THE PRESIDENT: State the privilege.

19 DELEGATE SOSNOWSKI: I would like to welcome a
20 brave soul who has ventured all the way from Baltimore
21 County to witness our proceedings here, Mrs. Steinberg,
